dominated by them by the German Embassy. The idea was to get abroad among them of the "transmission" of the virus. The German Embassy has recovered from the "transmission" of the virus, and stands alone in another press, but it is not the only one. It is much more extraordinary than in their mind, the officials have received another transmission for ships in a "Kollektiv, Lotterien" which they of course know nothing, but to query, it was found the presents had been issued that the "Rothschilde" has sentified to be benefited. But from his large relations with the European monarchs has been allowed to procure a substitute (can) for lotteries. For this purpose a sum of millions is devoted, all the tickets

THE CORNET AND PLASTER BUSINESS.--Are our scientific friends in Harvard, and elsewhere, observing this place; and cornet business?

A few places in the course of the three or four years, and a cannot a year, was very well, but the general tendency was to go on and now, after daily — is it not running — thing into the ground? We used to know the number of the places, and had some idea of the principal ones, but they have gone altogether out of our heads. You have got to go to the school-boy's map, and find them out. The Bonds of the Cambridge Observatory, has himself turned out eleven or twelve new ones — the telegraph does not exactly know them, and that rivalry, among observers, is so that every country and every institution pretensions to science, by setting up its come, and some of them their own land. If it be true, in some very wise people.
